

LOT 154 TERN STREET, DRIFT ESTATE, WOODGATE

958m2

Woodgate is considered one of the Fraser Coast's most prized stretch, simply because it has it all. Set along 16km of white sandy beach that backs on to the Burrum Coast National Park and amid some of Queensland's finest fishing zones.

This secret beachside location is nestled within 800m of the Beach from your Eastern Boundary, this is the perfect place to invest or retire. This is a land release that won't last long, due to its position between the Bruce Highway, Bundaberg, Hervey Bay and Fraser Island - a private slice of paradise where everything is within reach.

Drift Woodgate Beach is where private blocks are big enough to live the dream you've always wanted. And it's all within reach. Drift is all about space. You have space to breathe, space to build, space to create, space to park your boat, space to build your shed, space to take it all in.

Drift Woodgate Beach is a place to step off the treadmill and live! A paradise where life is as spectacular as it is simple.

Whether it's strolling along the shores with the kids or the dogs, Drift has been master-planned to blend seamlessly with an existing beachside community where old time values are still appreciated, where people still say g'day, where life is uncomplicated and goes along at the pace you want.
